

TEMPORARY EXHIBITION

CATCH YOUR BREATH

2 April – 20 September 2019

Take a deep BREATH.

How does it feel?

What does it make you think?

How many breaths have you taken today without even noticing?

Drawing on art, philosophy, anthropology, medical history, literature and music, this new exhibition at the Royal College of Physicians (RCP) combines research from the Life of Breath project and artist commissions with objects from the RCP collections and beyond, to show that breathing is so much more than a bodily function.

Open Monday to Friday, 9am–5pm.
Check the website for details of planned closure days
